

Hoxie Bridge

Fox Bottom Primitive
Campground

Keep your eyes open on the trail and make notes of what you see. Report any dangers or concerns to Rangers or call 512/859-2668. The trail is NOT completed. Are you or a group interested in volunteering to help Trail?

Notes:

BLACKLAN

D

Things to Remember

-Trail closes at dark, unless you are camping in Taylor Park, or on The Comanche Bluff Trail registered at the Fox Bottom Primitive Campground.

-To register for the Primitive Campground call 512/859-2668,

and leave name, telephone #, number of people camping,

method of transportation (i.e. hike, bike, or boat), and date arriving and departing. Purified water is not available at camp.

-Be aware of the environmental surroundings.

- * Check/watch weather conditions.

- * Wear appropriate clothing, (summer vs. winter)

- * Wear sturdy shoes/boots.

- * Always let someone know where you are going and when you expect to be back.

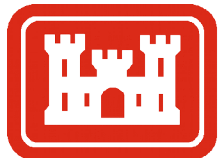

- * Bring a first aid kit & insect repellent.

- * Be able to recognize poisonous snakes, plants and insects.

- * Always bring and drink plenty of water to stay hydrated.

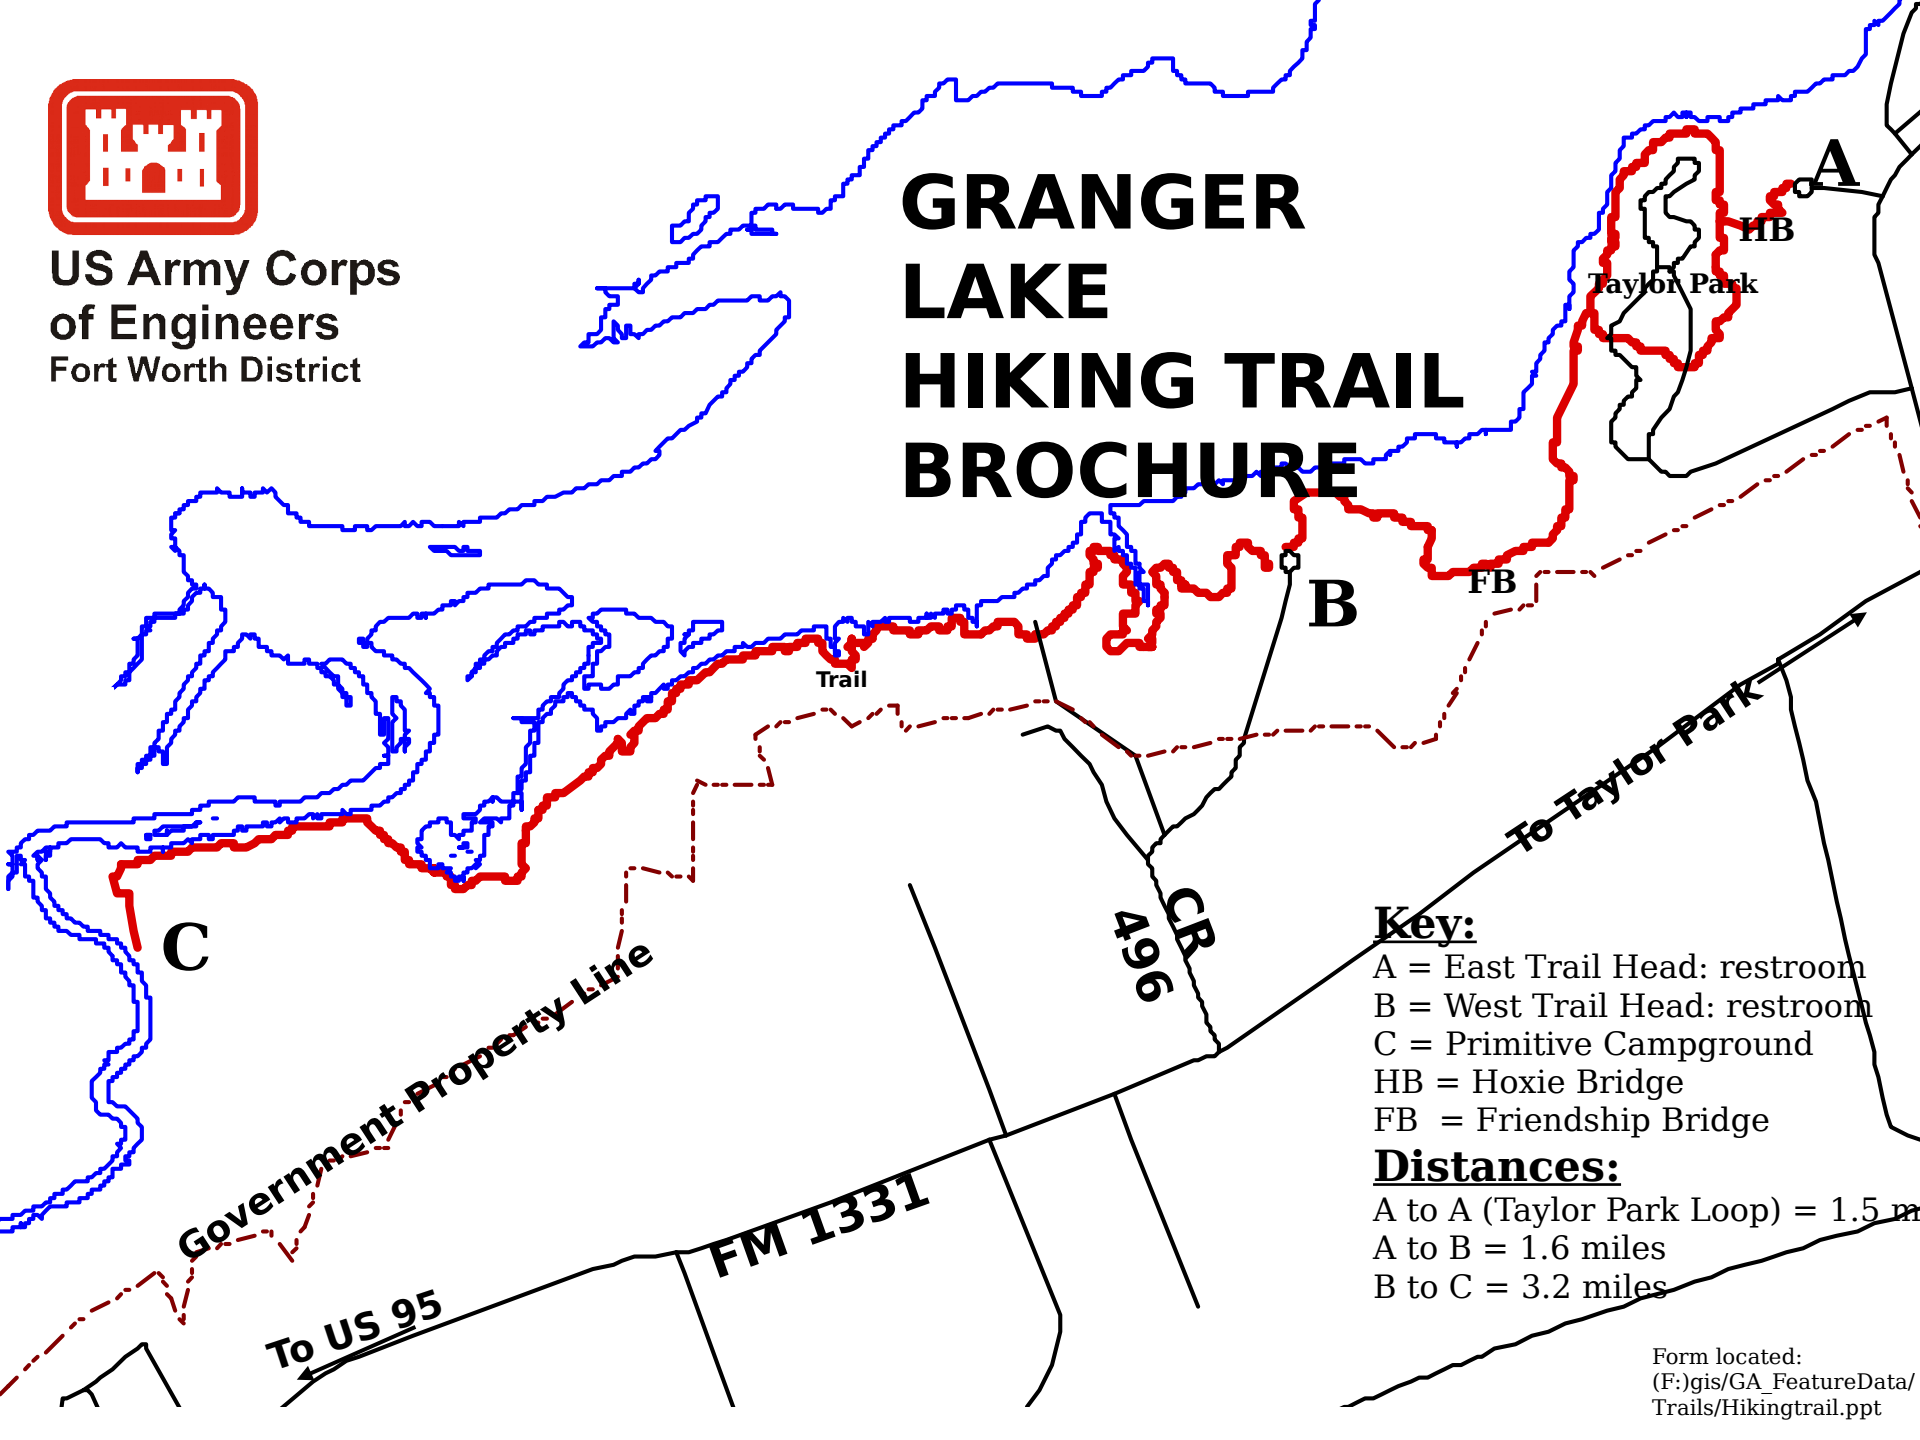

- * Parts of the trail may contain hazards and become uncrossable at times. Hike and bike at your own risk.

US Army Corps of Engineers
Fort Worth District

GRANGER LAKE HIKING TRAIL BROCHURE

Key:

A = East Trail Head: restroom
B = West Trail Head: restroom
C = Primitive Campground
HB = Hoxie Bridge
FB = Friendship Bridge

Distances:

A to A (Taylor Park Loop) = 1.5 miles
A to B = 1.6 miles
B to C = 3.2 miles